

Showing respect during your visit

In this museum we treat each other with respect.

We ask for people's consent before filming or taking photographs of them.

We handle exhibits and materials with care.

We laugh with each other, not at each other.

We ask for people's permission before we touch them.

We respect our own boundaries and everyone else's.

We make sure that everyone is at ease.

We are here together.